Each Officer may resign from their position upon written notice thereto, for any reason. To the extent possible, the resigning Officer shall notify the Board of Directors of the intended resignation at least one month prior to resigning.

The Board of Directors may remove an Officer by a majority vote, so long as the basis for doing so is consistent with the law and is reasonably related to preserving the Board of Directors' ability to carry out its functions hereunder. Bases for removing an Officer that are reasonably related to preserving the Board of Directors' ability to carry out its functions hereunder include, without limitation, conduct which (i) adversely affects the operation or interests of the Corporation, and (ii) which creates a reasonable likelihood of same.

The Executive Director Emeritus shall, they so desire, be entitled to permanently serve on the Advisory Board as defined herein. Bases for determining a lack of good standing include, without limitation, conduct by the Executive Director during or after their tenure which (i) adversely affects the operation or interests of the Corporation, or (ii) which creates a reasonable likelihood of the same.

Section 7. Duties of Managing Director

When the office of Managing Director is being served, the following powers, obligations and limitations shall apply to that office. In the absence of the Executive Director, or in the event of their inability or refusal to act, the Managing Director shall perform all the duties of the Executive Director. Article 10

Conflict of Interest and Compensation Approval Policies

Section 1. Purpose of Conflict of Interest Policy

The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect this tax-exempt Corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an Officer or Director of the Corporation or any "disqualified person" as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations and which might result in a possible "excess benefit transaction" as defined in Section 4958(c)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958 of the IRS Regulations. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2. Definition

Interested Person

Any Director, Officer, person with Board of Directors-delegated powers, or any other person who is a "disqualified person" as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

- An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement;
- A compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement; or
- A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Section 3, paragraph B, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the Board of Directors decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Section 3. Conflict of Interest Avoidance Procedures

Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Directors considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, the remaining Directors shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

An interested person may make a presentation at the Board of Directors meeting, but after the presentation, they shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

If appropriate, the Board of Directors shall appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After exercising due diligence, the Board of Directors shall determine whether the Corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board of Directors shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

If the Board of Directors has reasonable cause to believe an Interested Person has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the Interested Person of the basis for such belief and afford the Interested Person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the Interested Person's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board of Directors determines the Interested Person has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action including, without limitation, removal from the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Records of Board of Directors Proceedings

The minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors shall contain:

- The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the Board of Directors' decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Section 5. Annual Statements

Each Director and Officer shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

- has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy;
- has read and understands the policy;
- has agreed to comply with the policy; and
- understands that the Corporation is charitable and that, in order to maintain its federal tax exemption, it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax- exempt purposes.

Section 6. Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's-length bargaining; and
- Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit, or in an excess benefit transaction.

Section 7. Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in this Article, the Corporation may, but need not, use outside experts. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the Board of Directors of its responsibility for ensuring that periodic reviews are conducted.

Article 11 Amendment of Bylaws

Except as otherwise specified under the law or the Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors may alter, amend or repeal these Bylaws, and may adopt new Bylaws.

Article 12 Nondiscrimination Policy; Financial and IRS Documents; Construction and Terms

Section 1. Nondiscrimination Policy

The Officers, Directors, committee members, employees, and persons served by this Corporation shall be selected entirely on a nondiscriminatory basis with respect to age, sex, race, religion, national origin, and sexual orientation. It is the policy of the Corporation not to discriminate on the basis of race, creed, ancestry, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical disability, veteran's status, political service or affiliation, color, religion, or national origin.

Section 2. Financial and IRS Documents

Upon request, the Corporation shall provide its Internal Revenue Service Forms 990, 990-T, and Form 1023. (whichever are applicable), Bylaws, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements to members of the general public for inspection free of charge.

Section 3. Construction and Terms

If there is any conflict between the provisions of these Bylaws and the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall govern.

Should any of the provisions or portions of these Bylaws be held unenforceable or invalid for any reason, the remaining provisions and portions of these Bylaws shall be unaffected by such holding.

All references in these Bylaws to the Articles of Incorporation shall be to the Articles of Incorporation, articles of organization, certificate of incorporation, organizational charter, corporate charter, or other founding document of the Corporation filed with an office of this state and used to establish the legal existence of the Corporation.

All references in these Bylaws to a section or sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be to such sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, or to corresponding provisions of any future federal tax code.

Adoption of Bylaws

We, the undersigned, are all of the current Directors of the Corporation, and we consent to, and hereby adopt, the foregoing Bylaws as the Bylaws of the Corporation. The foregoing Bylaws hereby adopted shall supersede any previous Bylaws of the Corporation.
